

Loose Tea Price List

- 1. Premium Grade Yunnan Red      $5 / 50grams
Yunnan Red is a premium grade red tea, translucent golden red with a natural fragrance of brown sugar that is sweet in flavor.
- 2. White Mudan      $12 / 50 grams
Fujian province. A rare white tea with a flowery fragrance, that is mildly sweet in flavor.
- 3. Bi Tan Piao Xue    Meng Ding Green Tea w/ Jasmin flower      $12 / 50grams
Sichuan province. An attractive flower tea blending the highest quality Meng Ding green tea with jasmine flowers.
- 4. Dragon Well      $18 / 50grams
Zhejiang province. The most valued green tea of Emperor Qianlong in the Qing dynasty (1736-1796). It has the fragrance and flavor of fresh peas.
- 5. Green Bamboo (premium grade)      $18 / 50grams
Sichuan province. A high-quality green tea grown in E Mei mountains with the distinguishing feature of 1 broad-flat sprout. A clean light yellow tea with the fragrance of a bamboo forest and a sweet & slightly sour flavor.
- 6. Bi Luo Chun      $20 / 50grams
Jiangsu province. A green tea with a sweet flavor and the aroma of fresh flowers & fruit.
- 7. Fragrant Guan Yin      $9 / 50 grams
Fujian province. An oolong or blue-green tea with a clean, subtle taste of flowers and honey and the aroma of sweet crème.
- 8. Fragrant Guan Yin      $2 per bag /10 grams
Same tea as #7. Convenient single vacuum sealed 10g bags, makes 2 servings (4-5 steepings each).
- 9. Eastern Beauty Oolong      $15/50 grams
Taiwan. Famous oolong tea, amber yellow in color, sweet like champagne with a subtle fragrance of rose.
- 10. Wild Wudong Dan Cong      $25/50grams
Guangdong province. Wudong mountain produces some of the best quality oolong tea. Virtually organic, from wild old tea trees, this oolong tea has a natural aroma and flavor of peaches & pine.
- 11. Li Shan Oolong      $18 / 50 grams
Taiwan. A high-grade oolong tea produced by the same family of farmers for over 100 years, it has a pure yellow green color, flavor of fresh pea and flowers and the aroma of sweet creme.
- 12. Fragrant Ban Zhang Puer (Black tea)      $38 / 50 grams
Yunnan province. This unique, full-bodied black tea has the aroma of sweet crème & flavor of smoked dates. Puer tea aroma, flavor and body changes and develops with age like that of a fine wine.